

The Year in Review: A Message from the Society President

In 2006, the Michigan Supreme Court Historical Society focused on continuing and completing several research projects and on continuing to offer quality programs and publications to our members.

Special Events

In April, many of you joined us at the Detroit Athletic Club for our 15th Annual Membership Luncheon. There, we honored Mrs. Rosa Parks' life-long commitment to civil rights and equality with the presentation of the Legal History Award to the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute for Self-Development.

Professor Paul Finkelman, co-editor of The History of Michigan Law, gave the legal vignette about the legal history of civil rights in Michigan.

Archives and Oral Histories

Over the summer, oral historian Glenn Ruggles completed the oral history of Harold Hoag, former clerk of the Michigan Supreme Court. We plan to have the oral history transcribed and available on our website early in 2007.

Research

In cooperation with Professor Paul Moreno, our top cases committee completed the second phase of the top cases project and have now collected summaries of 19 of the Michigan Supreme Court's cases that have significantly impacted Michigan citizens. We are now in the editing phase of the project and hope to release a list of cases and summaries sometime in 2007.

Publications

We continue to distribute our various publications to interested citizens throughout the state, including the Michigan Supreme Court Historical Reference Guide, the Brief History of the Michigan Supreme Court booklet, the Index to Special Sessions, and our quarterly newsletter The Society Update. We also continue to offer our free lesson plan packets to social studies teachers and classrooms all over the state.

Once again our website, www.micourthistory.org, was one of our main focuses. Over the past year, we added three new sections to the site. The first, History Overview (www.micourthistory.org/resources/overviewhistory.php), is a synopsis of the history of the Court based on the information in our Brief History booklet. The second, History Timeline (www.micourthistory.org/resources/timeline1805-1850.php), highlights important events, changes, and firsts in the Court's 200-year history. The third, On and Off the Court (www.micourthistory.org/resources/electapptmain.php), lists each justice, the way in which they first came to the Court (whether appointed or elected), the dates on which they began and ended their service, the amount of time they served on the Bench, how or why they left the Bench, and details about their appointments and elections including who appointed them and who they defeated in elections, and their political party affiliation before they joined the Court.

2006 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Historical Society met in January, April, and October as we always do to plan and discuss upcoming events and programs and to discuss and review the effectiveness of past and current programs and activities. At our April 2006 meeting, we welcomed three new board members: Michael Murray, Mary Massaron Ross, and Janet K. Welch. We also elected Carl W. Herstein to serve Secretary. Mr. Herstein replaces Charles R. Rutherford, who remains on the Board of Directors.

As always, I must extend a very special thanks to all of our Board members, who each volunteer their time and efforts to ensure that the Society continues to live up to its mission and meet its goals.

I also thank each of you, our dedicated members, for your continued support. The Historical Society sincerely appreciates your continued support, without which we could not continue to fulfill our mission.

The Road Ahead: A Message from the Executive Director

As the Historical Society enters its 19th year, we are looking forward to continuing and completing many exciting projects.

PUBLICATIONS AND WEBSITE

As always, we will continue to create and distribute the quarterly newsletter, filling it with articles about the history of the Court and its justices. We are in the process of completing the editing of the 2006 Coleman Intern's work and look forward to publishing the stories of the special circumstances in which some of the justices came to or left the bench.

We will also continue to improve and update the website, www.micourthistory.org. For your convenience, in 2007 we will add the capability to accept credit card donations on-line.

ORAL HISTORIES

We have completed the oral history of former court clerk Harold Hoag and are in the process of editing the transcripts. Our plans are to have the transcript and audio file on-line by summer.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON

This year's Annual Membership Luncheon is scheduled for April 18, 2007 at the Detroit Athletic Club. Look for your invitation in the mail in March.

We are pleased to announce that Professor Paul Carrington, author of Stewards of Democracy: Law As a Public Profession. Professor Carrington has been invited to deliver a legal vignette about Thomas M. Cooley.

COLEMAN INTERNSHIP

The Historical Society is pleased to announce that Laura Langolf has been hired as the 2007 Coleman Intern. her work with the Society.

Laura will be working on several projects over the course of the next two semesters. First, she will be developing a list of "firsts" among Territorial and state Supreme Court advocates, preparing biographies of some of those advocates, and researching the history of qualification requirements to practice before the early courts.

During the spring semester, she will also be developing a list of former court clerks, criers, and recorders and preparing short biographies for each, preparing a history of the clerks office and describing its current role in the judicial system, prepare a history and description of the commissioner's office and creating a list of commissioners.

Laura will also be assisting the top cases committee by scanning opinions, gathering supporting materials, pictures, and articles, and assisting with preparing the project for web and print publication.

Finally, as I prepare for the arrival of a baby in late May, Laura will be training to assist with some administrative and office duties for the Historical Society and will be taking over some of those duties while I am on leave.
