Should Michigan's concealed weapons law be repealed?

Name

Use this journal to take notes on the concealed weapons law. You will use this information to prepare for the upcoming discussion, the Friday Forum.

There has been a great deal of controversy over whether Michigan's legislature should have passed a law allowing Michigan citizens to carry concealed weapons. In June 2001, the Michigan Supreme Court cleared the way for the law to go into effect on July 1, 2001. Currently, county boards are acting on applications for individuals to carry concealed weapons.

Therefore, the following questions will be the subject of our Friday Forum:

Should Michigan's concealed weapons law be repealed?
