

Monday, Jan. 1, 1917

N. 36+

Weather. very fine, bright and thawing some.

Rec. Went down in forenoon, to the old office in the Capital Nat. Bank Bldg, and met Scott Barber case over a patent; talked with him an hour.

Supreme Court. At noon to clay new state officers took their oaths of office before C. J. Hughes. Among others sworn in was Frank Johnson, my successor, I ceased to be justice but of the Supreme Court at 12.30 to day.

Hyams. Received from him check for $25.00, bal in full for my services in the old mining cases. The biggest check I have ever received.

page,