

N. 367 Monday, Jan. 1, 1917

Weather. very fine, bright and thawing some.

Rec. Went down in forenoon, to the old office in the Capital Nat. Bank Bldg, and met Scott about the Barber case over a patent; talked with him an hour.

Supreme Court. At noon to day new state officers took their oaths of office before C. J. Keelin. Among others sworn in was Frank Fellows, my successor. I ceased to be Justice of the Supreme Court at 12.30 to day.

Hyams. Received from him check for $25,000. bal in full for my services in the old mining cases. The biggest check I have ever received.